Strike

Feb. 12
(approved)

When interviewed by long distance telephone by the Standard-Post, Senator Mansfield, (D-Mont) the Majority Whip of the United States Senate, said "Thank God!".

The Senator said that he was very pleased that the Company and the Union had finally arrived at a mutually satisfactory agreement and in addition to the negotiators, he gave full credit to the key efforts made by Director Joseph Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, his associate, Robert Moore, and the three-man mediation team of Mr. & Mrs. Hillenbrand + Edwards who stayed on the job - which brought the negotiations to a successful conclusion. He was especially unstinting ⁱⁿ his praise of the courageous and continuous efforts of Montana's Western District Congressman, Lee Metcalf, and Montana's Senior Senator, James E. Murray, both of whom, he declared, have worked unceasingly and vigorously to bring the parties together over the past two months.
